

INCORPORATION

Though Lily Lake has been a community since the early 1800's, it was not incorporated until December of 1990. Residents were content with township/county form of government acting in their interests of public service and land planning until hit with the reality of a major landfill being located west of the Village.